Edgar

EDGAR is the villainous butler of Madame. He's allergic to the pampered Aristocats and secretly hates tending to them. This leading part requires a strong, mature actor with excellent acting and singing skills. Looking for an actor who can portray a believable sneeze, possesses excellent comedic timing, and is unafraid to be mean!

Roquefort

ROQUEFORT is the naïve yet ultimately brave house mouse who overcomes his fears and saves the Aristokittens from Edgar. This role requires a strong singer and character actor who can believably play innocent and frightened. If possible, cast someone physically smaller than the Alley Cats to in order emphasize his vulnerability when confronting them. Roquefort can be played by either a girl or a boy.

General Napoleon and Private Lafayette

General NAPOLEON and Private LAFAYETTE are two country dogs in a comedic power struggle throughout the show. Napoleon is the power-hungry leader and Lafayette the not-so-subservient private. These roles do not require solo singing, so casting will be based on acting and the ability to move like a dog. Since this comic duo feeds off of each other, actors must work well together. Napoleon and Lafayette can be played by either girls or boys.

Amelia and Abigail

AMELIA and ABIGAIL are the two bold geese sisters who rescue O'Malley from the river and lead the way out of the country back to Paris. These comedic characters sing a duet (but no solos), so looking for solid singers and actors. It's also important for Amelia and Abby to be able to move convincingly as geese.

Scat Cat

SCAT CAT is the jazzy leader of the Alley Cat narrators. He or she is ultra hip and enjoys introducing the Aristocats to jazz music. Scat Cat leads the song "Ev'rybody Want to Be a Cat" so we need a strong singer and smooth mover! Looking for a child that's willing to go over-the-top on both movement and acting improvisations. The more creative and able to perform outside the box, the better. Scat Cat can be played by either a girl or a boy.

The Alley Cats - Hep, Mad, Slick and Wacky

THE ALLEY CATS – HEP, MAD, SLICK and WACKY – are the glue that holds The Aristocats KIDS together. These storytellers set up and comment on the action as well as execute the scene changes. These roles require actors with strong speaking voices who can focus onstage for long periods of time. They should also have good memories for the more complicated blocking of scene changes and transitions. Depending upon ability, they may take part in all or only some of the production numbers which call for the Alley Cats.
