The All Theatre Company presents this double-feature, entitled Disney's Cinderella and Sleeping Beauty, May 6-23, 2010 at Town Hall Theatre in Centerville. Two of Disney's most timeless stories come to life in this double-bill. First, Cinderella is endlessly mistreated by her wicked step-family and denied a chance to attend the Royal Ball. But, with a little help from her Fairy Godmother, not only does she get to the ball, but falls in love with the Prince! Then, while her 16th birthday should be cause for Aurora's celebration, the evil Sorceress Maleficent has got some very unsavory plans for this beauty! It's up to Flora, Fauna and Merriweather to use their fairy magic to save her!

Based on the beloved Disney animated features, the double-bill is being directed by Cincinnati native, Colin Thornton and is open to actors in grades 2-12. This is an all-cast show, which means everyone who completes an audition and does not possess excessive conflicts will be cast in the production.
